In Memoriam

The Journalism Classes of 1958-59 respectfully dedicate this annual to the late Mr. Melvin Jungerheld who passed away suddenly during this school year after serving very capably as a Webber instructor for 33 years. This highly regarded member of our faculty is greatly missed by both the student body and the faculty. We hold his memory with honest appreciation and great respect.

MRS. CHARLOTTE WALDORF
Elementary Principal

Our talented and efficient elementary principal contributed immeasurably to the very successful elementary school year.

MR. DWIGHT W. STEVENS
Principal

Our very able principal continued to do an excellent job in keeping Webber the very fine educational institution it is. His relationship with parents, faculty, and students was superb.

In Memoriam

Webber students mourn the tragic drowning May 3, 1959 of Don Landeryou son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Landeryou, of 4240 East Street. He drowned while attempting to save a companion who had fallen into the Cass River.

Webber students and faculty members extend their sympathy to his family in this time of bereavement and honor his fine memory.

Because this happened as the journalism classes were putting the Webber Comet to press, we do not have a special picture of Don. However, his individual ninth grade picture appears on page 7.
